

ICEBREAKER

Specific Event Requirements

Icebreaker has some specific competitor requirements for certain events

Novice longsword

- This event is specifically designed to introduce people who have never competed in a tournament before to the tournament scene in a setting where they may compete against practitioners of a similar level.
- This event is provisionally open to 24 participants.
- Participants must have never competed in a tournament against other clubs before.
- Participants are not allowed to compete in other events.
- Participant must still meet all gear and weapon requirements.

Women, Femme, Trans, Non Binary Steel Longsword

- This event is provisionally open to 24 participants.
- This event is open to participants who self-identify as women, trans, femme, Trans masculine or non-binary.
- If Participant buys an all event ticket they may also take part in any open event.
- Participant must still meet all gear and weapon requirements.